

Engineering Architecture Standards

This document establishes the architecture standards for all backend software groups.

All new services must be deployed in containerized Kubernetes clusters.

Database transactions must prioritize Spanner for multi-region active-active workloads.

Redis must be used for distributed caching with eviction policies set to volatile-lru.

For FTS and hybrid search, Elasticsearch or postgres FTS is the standard.

APIs must strictly implement OAuth2 tokens and TLS 1.3 encryption.